

The Prince of Wales shakes hands with the midshipmen on board the Renown.
Central News.

This photograph shows H. M. S. Renown, with the Prince of Wales on board, leaving Portsmouth harbor on the start of her long voyage.
Central News.

The King and Queen, Princess Mary and the Duke of York were at Victoria station to say goodbye to the Prince at the start of his eight months' tour.
International.

Warren Harding Hannaway of Norristown, Pa., has not yet read the letter President Harding wrote him exhorting him to be a credit to the name. His mother, Mrs. Harry E. Hannaway, held him for the photographer.
Wide World.

Above—The latest photograph of Mme. Sao-Ke Alfred Sze, wife of the Chinese Minister to the United States, and her daughter Betty.

At left—Lieut. Harry Miller, U. S. Marines, with his wife and their son, who has been named after the President. Mr. Harding wrote them a letter of congratulation. The Millers live in Brooklyn.
Photograms.

Miss Gertrude Allston, who is to take part in the negro pageant, "The Open Door," which is to be given at Carnegie Hall November 22 for the benefit of Atlanta University.

The four women members of the American advisory commission of twenty-one, selected by President Harding for the arms conference, photographed at the State Department. Left to right: Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, Mrs. Eleanor Franklin Egan and Mrs. Katherine Phillips Edson.
(c) Harris & Ewing.